FOREWORD

FOREWORD

Between the covers of this book are encompassed all the pictures and information pertinent to the activities and members of Spencerport High School. It is the aim of this publication to provide a lifelong remembrance to each student of the happy years he spent here.

In 1940, the first yearbook in twenty years was edited by the Echo staff. With the able assistance of Mr. Buell Arnold, Miss Jane Miller, and Mr. Edgar Dubois, the book was a great success and 275 copies were printed.

This year the volume has an estimated circulation of 350 copies and has increased eight pages in content. This 1940-41 Record will, it is hoped, measure up to the high standards set by last year's issue.

The yearbook is indebted to Betty Ann Utter as editor, and Mr. Partington as advisor, for the time and effort they have devoted to making the book a success.

NELSON C. WOOD
PRINCIPAL

DEDICATED TO OUR PRINCIPAL

In appreciation of the splendid work he has done during his five years as Principal of the Spencerport High School, this book is hereby dedicated to Mr. Nelson C. Wood. Since he began his duties in 1936 he has contributed a great deal toward the improvement of the school program. Through his untiring efforts a number of valuable innovations have been successfully introduced and carried through.

One of the most worthwhile projects instituted by Mr. Wood was student government. In 1936 he suggested the plan, and tried unsuccessfully to arouse the interest of the student body. In 1939 a Student Council was established which is now functioning very efficiently. In 1936 the curriculum was amplified by the addition of a kindergarten. In 1937 the Industrial Arts Department was added; in 1938, the Agricultural course and our own bus system. In these ways, our high school has grown and expanded during Mr. Wood's term.

Several classes have graduated since 1936, and the members of each will long remember the friendly and helpful advice he rendered to them on perplexing problems regarding studies, choosing a career, and other activities. By his own example, he has taught others consideration and fair play. His guidance has given everyone who sought his counsel, new strength and courage, and fortified them to go on.

Mr. Wood is well worthy of the high esteem in which all the students hold him. Everyone regards him, not as a disciplinarian, but as a strong friend who is deeply interested in the welfare of each individual.

CLASS HISTORY

Well, for goodness' sake! Here we are, all we Seniors, ready to graduate from high school-- the place of all our young troubles and worries. If we didn't have calendars to look at every day, it would be hard for us to believe that four years could possibly pass so quickly. Why, it seems just like yesterday that we took our first step on the ladder of "growing up" and entered our Freshman year in high school. That was in 1937. It was a consolation to have a certain teacher named Mr. DuBois to boost us along to that ladder of many steps, or we would never have gotten there, we're sure.

Well, we climbed the first step, and there we were, Freshmen----- innocent green ones who certainly lived up to our name, as most Freshmen do. That year of "wide-eyed innocence" we had a roller skating party in the city, a Hallowe'en masquerade party, (our first chance to exhibit how little we knew about dancing), and lastly, a scavenger hunt at Miss Miller's which brought us hurrying home in the midst of a downpour.

Then, if we were lucky, we took our second step up the ladder of "growing up" and became Sophomores. That year, 1938, we also had a Hallowe'en party, and throughout the year we "threw" tea dances.

On the third step of the ladder when we became Juniors, we thought ourselves pretty good. We sold pins and pencils that year, and strove to give a rollicking play, "Ouch, My Corns!" To end the Last term, we brought on the greatest thrill yet--- the Junior Prom, on the 17th of May. It was a spring ball and the auditorium was supposed to have resembled a flower garden. It was a successful dance, however, and made us feel "swell" to think that it turned out so well.

Our last and highest step on the ladder was taken in 1940 when the honored name SENIORS was passed on to us. This year we sold candy, and presented a very educational play called "The Nitwits", which was a success and brought the house down. We had a Hallowe'en party too, with orange and black goblins dancing on the walls. Last, but certainly not least, we sponsored the Patriotic Senior Ball----- the third of our high school days. The red, white, and blue colors thrilled us, for those stand for our strong and able nation which we must stand by so faithfully at this time.

Now that we are ready to graduate, we realize that we have been prepared not only for college but for that greatest and most strenuous step-- that which lies before us --- Life!

CLASS WILL GRUMBLIES

We, the remains of the outstanding 1937 Freshman Class of the John T. Trowbridge High School, being of semi-equal physical and mental ability, do declare this our last will and testament.

--First, to the Board of Education, faculty, our parents, and to those who have helped us in any way to complete our high school course, we leave our sincere appreciation.

--The Senior Class of 1941 reluctantly bestow on the oncoming Senior Class the senior privileges the former class never had.

--To the Junior Class, the ability to raise money.

--To the Sophomore Class, the Senior's quietness in the library.

--To the Freshman Class, the strict regulation of the Safety Patrol.

--Marge Dillon leaves her ability to win the speaking contest to Eleanor Bonnett.

--Bert Miller leaves his height to Homer Barton.

--Ed Murphy will probably get Jean Ballard's keen sense of promptness.

--Roger Charbonneau leaves his muscular form to Dean Henry.

--Emma Sinsebox has leased her extreme prettiness to the Juniors.

--John Koch leaves his knowledge of History to Kenny Stiles.

--Pauline German leaves her stature to Ruth Clark.

--Because of its rare and marvelous talent, Gordon McMann leaves his voice to Dick Jones.

--Doris Kort leaves her Quietness to Nancy Holt.

--Jim Hoy leaves his ability on the Safety Patrol to Art Kirvan.

--The reputation of a perfect lady has fallen from Jeanne Kenyon's shoulders onto those of certain Sophomore girls.

--To Dayton Cafferty, we leave Rich Houck's way with the women.

--Laurel Herbert will appreciate Wilma Volkmar's gift of tall stature.

--Orville Gravelle, who has proved himself a gallant leader, leaves this honorable position to Mark Stenzel.

Grumbles

On this day of God's Grace, May 29, 1941, I, D. Sheldon, do present the Grumbles of the class of '41.

Well, our first and loudest grumble is the failure of our class to go either to New York or Washington. "Darn these teachers."

The Senior Class is grumbling over the lack of good English words in the dictionary to express their gratitude to the faculty for their help in our money-raising projects.

We also wonder what became of those campaign speeches which granted Senior Privileges in library!!!!

The whole school is grumbling over the drafting of Mr. Dubois. Just look what that war in Europe did to our school!

The Senior Class wishes to complain about the methods used by the Safety Patrol. This grumble will probably continue for several years.

The Senior Play Cast grumbles over those suppers last winter. Burnt spaghetti and pudding was our diet. How about it, Lannigan?

The Senior Class is grumbling over those horrible stories which we were made to read. DAVID COPPERFIELD, THE HOUSE OF SEVEN GABLES, THE TALE OF TWO CITIES, etc.

We should also like to put in a complaint about the doing away with tea dances.

Darr Wohlers is heard grumbling over the inability of that great, little car of his to do the things that an army tank does. For instance, climbing seventy-five degree grades and manoeuvering through gravel ruts.

Certain members of the Senior Play cast are grumbling over the lack of longer night rides to Niagara Falls, aren't they, Marge?

IN MEMORY
JOHN McCAULEY

The Junior Class of Spencerport High School wishes to dedicate this page to the memory of John McCauley, one of its members, whose death came as a tragic blow to all of us. He was liked by all who knew him and his cheery smile and happy disposition are keenly missed. He was active in sports and in the band and did everything with his whole heart behind it. We shall not soon forget him for his memory shall live on through the medium of this book for many years to come.

The Student Council was started by several active members of the school. They held their first meeting January 4, 1940, and Ralph Schuler was made temporary chairman. The purpose of the Student Council is to regulate and control student extra-curricular activities.

This year a general election was held November 13, 1940 and the following officers were elected: President-Orville Gravelle, Vice-President-Mark Stenzel, and Secretary-James Hoy, who will carry on the unfinished work of the previous council. The Council this year is composed of 3 Seniors, 3 Juniors, 2 Sophomores, 2 Freshmen, 1 Eighth and 1 Seventh grade representative.

This representative body drew up a social calender, set up standards for music awards, approved varsity awards, sportmanship awards, approved various school clubs and organizations.

The Council meets bi-weekly on Friday during the eighth period. At the meetings problems of the school are brought up and discussed by the members of the council.

SAFETY PATROL

HISTORY OF THE SAFETY PATROL

The Safety Patrol was organized under the direction of Mr. Olmsted in December 1939. This patrol was divided into two squads of six men each, with George Fuller and Robert Kervan acting as the captains of their respective squads.

The Safety Patrol was formed for the purpose of eliminating the possibility of grade-school pupils being injured in the parking lot and for maintaining orderly conduct in the halls and eighth period.

At the beginning, offenders were turned over to Mr. Olmsted, but when the student court was formed, offenders were referred to it.

The Safety Patrol of Spencerport High School is the first of its kind to be established in a rural school of Monroe County.

The success of student government in Spencerport High School is aided by the success of the Safety Patrol which was the first move toward student government and student safety.

About September 24, 1940 after the summer vacations and with school well on its way, the Safety Patrol again came into view. The Safety Patrol of 1940 is a more strict enforcer of the Spencerport High School Student Government.

ECHO STAFF

ECHO

"Echo" going to press. That is the familiar cry one may hear traveling through the corridors of Spencerport High School twice a month. You see the "Echo" is the school paper which is published bi-weekly by the students of Spencerport High School.

The "Echo" room is certainly a busy place. This year the paper is under the editorship of Jeanne Kenyon with Grace McClellan as her assistant. News travels fast and furious in Spencerport High School and it is up to Doris Kort, the news editor, to assign it to her roving reporters, Christine Stettner, Shirley Williamson, Carol Amish, Dorothy Brown, Jeanette Lamberson, Eleanor Bonnett, Shirley Payne and Don Moore. Clink, clink, my, is that the sound of money? If it is, you will certainly find John Koch there busily counting the day's sales.

Another familiar cry you may here is, "Are the personals in yet?" As this is an important part of our paper, the part which the students enjoy the most is greatly important, so I have to collect the latest scoops. Kay Matzell and Marjorie Dillon are the lucky ones to hold down the post of the personal column. Not to be overlooked are the columnists who contribute greatly to the success of the paper. They are Thelma Flagg, Peggy Jones, Betty Ann Utter and Shirley Miller. The sport page is very successfully edited by Charles Trabold and Arlene House. The joke page is written by Harold Schott and William Wadsworth, while the literary pages are by Janet Potter and Jane Bidlack. Joan Austin draws the very artistic and clever, attractive covers. The typists are S. Nichols, J. Bennett and M. Thornton.

GIRLS SPEAKING CONTEST

HISTORY OF BRIGHAM MEMORIAL SPEAKING CONTEST

When Mrs. Henry Martyn Brigham's only son was killed in the World War she was struck with the uselessness of war in relation to its toll of human life. She then conceived the idea of sponsoring an annual speaking contest to be held in honor and memory of her son who had been sacrificed to the god of war.

Since Mr. Brigham lived in Spencerport, the local high school was designated as the place where the contests were to take place.

The rules of the contest state there is to be a boy's and girl's contest. The first prize winner to receive a gold medal; second prize, a silver medal; and third prize, a bronze medal.

This contest gives the students an added incentive to develop ability they may have for public speaking. Many pupils have overcome extreme self-consciousness by entering this annual event.

The contest has accomplished much in the way of gaining a well earned reputation for clean and vigorous rivalry.

It certainly has been a fitting tribute to one who gave his life so others may practice their rights.

The entire student body and all connected in any way with the contest are extremely grateful to Mrs. Brigham for her excellent contribution to the school.

BAND SWING BAND

Spencerport High School is indeed proud of its band. Under the able direction of Mr. Melville the band has shown great improvement and is really a fine musical organization. We can not say enough concerning the wonderful leadership of Mr. Melville. He is a fine musician himself and his understanding and optimistic method of teaching lends encouragement to even the most doubtful student. The band has played at assemblies and at sporting events and really makes our spirits run high with their inspiring music. We are looking forward to the coming year with high hopes of success in band contests since we have developed a band which shows real promise.

There is a rumor around that the cats are going to town and that the ickies, too, are really beginning to moo. Pardon this thing or do you like swing? There is a gang of jeepers who have really got the creep-ers and really like to see a swinging group begin to toot. Pardon this jargon but it is concerned with swing alone.

Our swing band is a young organization. It was recently organized and is doing very well. We hope they will have a successful future. It offers an opportunity for those who wish to earn their way, in the future, through school.

DRAMATICS

Every year the public is entertained by the Senior Play. This year we had the opportunity of seeing "Nuts To You". Headed by a cast of many and directed by Mr. Edgar Du Bois, the play proved to be very successful with Orve Gravelle and Dug Sheldon furnishing the laughs for everyone.

This review was under the direction of Miss Thompson and Mr. Du Bois. This was the main feature of the Carnival with concessions following and every kind of entertainment making a wonderful evening for all.

French Club

The Latin Club is held every month. The Latin I and Latin II Classes take turns in bringing the refreshments. The dues are collected and the business of the month discussed. After the business of the month is over games are played.

The Latin Club put on a play for the school assembly program, entitled "Julius Ceasar."

This club was organized in January, 1941 with Miss Barnard as advisor.

The French Club (L. S. H. F.) was organized on January 14, 1941 by several pupils of the French I class with Mr. Gordon as advisor.

Meetings are held in turn at each of the members' homes. After the meetings, which are carried on in French, they play French games. When refreshments are served, French is spoken, and many new words are learned. During the meeting, a member is chosen to write an interesting essay on France. This stimulates interest in the language.

Intramural Sports

The girls of Spencerport High have a highly organized program. The chief team sports are soccer, basketball, and softball.

For those who prefer sports in which there are only two or four persons taking part, there are badminton and ping-pong tournaments. Two very popular sports are riding and archery. Although these clubs are able to partake in their activities in the spring and fall, many girls have joined both clubs.

The team sports, badminton, and riding are headed by Mrs. Fields. Miss Barnard is the instructress of archery.

CHEERLEADERS

In many of the sports in which Spencerport participates there is a definite need of spectator support. This is usually given vocally. In other words cheering is the principal means the students have of showing their support for their teams.

Naturally there is a system of direction of this vocal appreciation. This is what is popularly known as cheerleading. The cheerleading squad of Spencerport High School is composed of both boys and girls. To be a cheerleading aspirant one must have one's marks up. This is the first and most important of the qualifications for a successful cheerleader. When one has passed the first elimination he must learn many new cheers to prepare for the final elimination. This final sifting of the applicants is done with the help of representatives of all the classes in the school, so everyone has an equal chance.

This year there has been the usual keen competition, and from seventeen applicants for the girls' positions, four were selected. In the boys' division three were selected from the eight who tried out.

The girl cheerleaders this year were: Thelma Flagg, Joyce Bennett, Gloria Thome, and Ruth Gargan.

The boy cheerleaders were: Mark Stenzel, Bud Latham, and Chuck Trabold.

This year the school bought new outfits for its cheerleaders. The outfits for the girls were of corduroy; the blouses gold, and culottes of blue. These are the school colors, of course. The boys wore white sweaters with a gold letter, and completed their ensemble with white pants having blue and gold stripes down the side.

This year there was a very good response from the students, and coupled with the fact the S. H. S. five won, an enjoyable season was had by the cheering squad.

None of the improvements and high standards of the squad could have been possible, however, without the able and efficient direction of Mrs. Fields, formerly Miss Grant. The spirit which she put into her direction really helped us to put our cheers over more effectively.

The end of the season was marked by a supper which was attended by all the cheerleaders and Mr. and Mrs. Fields, a real finish for a fine year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

Under the fine leadership of Coach Ken Stenzel, Spencerport High's hard working basketball team was able to climb the ladder of stardom and clinch the Monroe County A League Crown. This was the first year of coaching for Coach Stenzel, and we all realize the remarkable job he accomplished in the building of our fine ball team. The first five men consisted of Rich Houck, LaVerne Houck, Chuck Vowles, Joe Elliot and Homer Barton. Thru an accident, Joe Elliot was put out for the season and the first five changed slightly to Rich Houck, LaVerne Houck, Topper Vowles, Chuck Vowles, and Homer Barton. Junie Reynolds also showed surprising ability on the varsity this year.

The substitutes were helpful and not to be overlooked. They played to the best of their ability when they were needed.

Rich Houck ended the season in second place in the individual Monroe County contest. Two of our men, Joe Elliot and Rich Houck, made the Varsity Monroe County All-Stars. We are all proud of our team and our Coach!!!!

RESERVE BASKETBALL TEAM

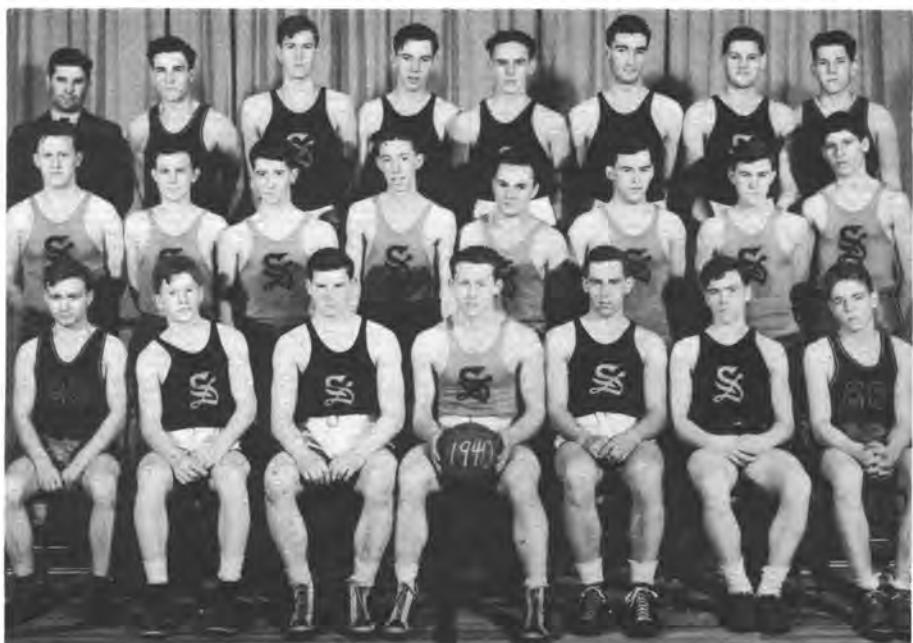

The reserve basketball boys were right in the thick of the fight this year. Although not compiling a record like the varsity, they did very well, batting well over five hundred per cent with seven wins out of twelve starts. Outstanding for the reserves was Gifford Reeves, Dean Henry, and Joe Morabito. Every man, however, really played with everything he had. All are fine prospects for the varsity next year.

SOCER TEAM

The Soccer team in its initial year did very well considering it was an inexperienced team. The team fared well with six losses, five wins and one tie. With "Rich" Houck, "Dar" Wohler, and Laverne Houck, three of our big booters, and Homer Barton as goalie the team did exceedingly well. The team lost many games by a few minutes that might have given victory to Spencerport's forces. Under the leadership of Coach Schum the boys on the team upheld the name of Spencerport High School.

Spencerport High School has long been noted for its fine baseball teams. Coach Schum, a fine baseball player himself, has been the man responsible for developing these excellent teams. Coach Schum has made somewhat of a specialty of developing catchers, the position he, himself, played, and his catchers are the most feared in the league.

In 1939, the team won the Monroe County League Championship. They expect to be the target for every other team in the league to shoot at since they have a goodly number of veterans back and expect a successful season.

It is the policy of Coach Schum to give every man a chance to prove his worth and the lineup, therefore, constantly shifts. However, to start out the season it appeared as follows: Homer Barton, Dean Henry, and Junior Reynolds as pitchers; "Dar" Wohlers, catcher; Jack Eckel, first base; "Marv" Warner, second base; LaVerne Houck, short-stop; Johnie Koch, third base; Gena Warner, left-field; "Rich" Houck, center-field; "Bill" Corke, right-field.
Best of luck, fellows!
